1. Plaintiff is the owner by assignment of United States Patent No. 6,539,401 ("the '401 Patent") titled "System for Facilitating Home Construction and Sales." The '401 Patent issued on March 25, 2003. A true and correct copy of the '401 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

5. Unless a permanent injunction is issued enjoining Defendant and its agents, servants, employees, representatives, affiliates, and all others acting in active concert therewith from infringing the '401 Patent, Plaintiff will be greatly and irreparably harmed.

6. Plaintiff is the owner by assignment of United States Patent No. 7,685,506 ("the '506 Patent") titled "System and Method for Synchronizing Data Between a Plurality of Databases." The '506 Patent issued on March, 23, 2010. A true and correct copy of the '506 Patent is attached as Exhibit B.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendant has been and is now infringing the '506 Patent in the State of Texas, in this Judicial District, and elsewhere in the United States, by, among other things, directly or through intermediaries, making, using, importing, providing, supplying, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale apparatuses and systems (including, without limitation, Dropbox for Windows, Mac, Linux, Android, iPhone, iPad, Blackberry, and Kindle Fire) that provide a method for synchronizing data in the data fields between a plurality of databases, comparing a modification identification, identifying an altered portion of the data that has the modification identification subsequent to the prior synchronization, transferring only the altered portion of the data from the first database, and replacing the data in the second database, covered by one or more claims of the '506 Patent to the injury of HDST. Defendant is directly infringing, literally infringing, and/or infringing the '506 Patent under the doctrine of equivalents. Defendant is thus liable for infringement of the '506 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

8. On information and belief, to the extent any marking was required by 35 U.S.C. § 287, all predecessors in interest to the '506 Patent complied with any such requirements.

9. As a result of Defendant's infringement of the '506 Patent, Plaintiff has suffered monetary damages and is entitled to a money judgment in an amount adequate to compensate for Defendant's infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by Defendant, together with interest and costs as fixed by the court, and Plaintiff will continue to suffer damages in the future unless Defendant's infringing activities are enjoined by this Court.
